Lot, 242 Bourke Street, Meckering

Looking for a cheap block away from it all to build your new home?

Take advantage of the low price of the land to build your dream home!

This block is located just at the edge of the small town of Meckering which is only 36kms from Northam and conveniently located near the Great Eastern Highway. Great if you are a truckie or retired with a caravan!

This property would also suit a young family looking for extra space as there is a primary school in town and the local high school is in Cunderdin, which is a short bus ride away.

The block is 1.59 hectares (3.6 acres) and has scheme water connected. Power is close by (next door neighbour has power connected) and the phone line runs along the boundary.

Head out for a drive and check it out for yourself.
