Located on a 1080m² corner block with side access to the rear yard, this project home may be your next investment!

The approx. 1080m² corner block size allows you access to the rear yard through side gates with plenty of space for you to add your own work shop shed or create the garden you have always dreamed of!

The property currently is equipped with two small sheds and a larger shed area which has a section of concrete flooring and the rest is earth. No power to these spaces.

First bedroom is directly off the entry way and the remaining rooms are down the hallway closer to the bathroom. Two of the bedrooms have carpet, one has timber floor boards and the other is concrete.

The lounge room has tiled floors and timber trimming which separates the lounge from the dining room. Walls and ceiling in this space have been replaced and in the beginning stages of being updated.

The open plan kitchen/dining space does require some work but some walls have already been started on. U shape kitchen and walk in pantry.
