70 Goonaring Rd, Morangup

Lovely Morangup Property!

This beautiful 17-acre property located in the popular Morangup area is such a great spot.

With excellent quality land and good infrastructure, this property would suit anyone looking to own a hobby farm and start becoming self-sufficient.

The property itself is all cleared, usable land. It has been divided into 6 x paddocks, each with water troughs that automatically get filled via the bore.

Currently running sheep, the property has been cropped in the past, producing oats, barley and hay. The machinery associated with cropping will also be included in the sale. An absolute treasure trove for the right buyer.

There are a few sheds on the property, including a large workshop, a shearing shed, a few open sheds for storage and the main shed with power connection, a 90,000L rainwater tank and plumbing to the toilet, shower and sink area.

Both the workshop and main shed have concrete flooring and mains power connection.

This fantastic property is just perfect for someone wanting to get out of the city but still be close enough to enjoy Perth's luxuries.
