Rare Opportunity to Purchase 2 Shops and a Cute Cottage on the Main Street of Toodyay

This is a wonderful and rare opportunity to secure a charming three-bedroom cottage plus two adjacent former shops.

The property has been keenly priced to sell quickly so don't delay here.

The property enjoys highly visible frontage on the main street in Toodyay right in town. The block is 2222 m2 with Avon River frontage, the block zoning is R10/50, so there is enormous potential to subdivide the property, and with shire approval, you could easily build multiple units for accommodation or other uses.

This adorable cottage is a 3 X 1 fully furnished home, with hardwood floors, high ceilings, air conditioning and a fireplace in the living room.

It's a cosy little home that provides highly flexible and adaptable accommodation and would suit virtually anyone seeking a great life in a vibrant, thriving country town.

The 2 shop fronts both have a great open space, and the location makes it a fantastic place for anyone looking to start a local business right in town.

The two shops enjoy separate street entrances and also benefit from internal access via the cottage and interconnecting access between the two shops themselves.
