49 Beaufort Street, Toodyay

On 11.3 acres this massive brick home is only...

A formal front entry hall leads you into the large family home. Up the top end is the master bedroom suite which features a walk in robe and beautifully appointed ensuite bathroom with extra large shower and separate toilet.

The master bedrooms lead out to the formal lounge room area and through to the large country style kitchen which has views across the hills out the kitchen sink window. The kitchen features heaps of built in cupboards, a new but old look farmhouse style double gas oven and stove, built in dishwasher, built in double fridge space (with tap for water) and built in double pantry cupboard.

The kitchen leads into the open plan dining room and family room which looks out across the front paddock.

The three children's bedrooms are all good sizes and up this end of the house is the activity room so your children can have their own lounge room or play room set up! Plus the main bathroom, separate toilet and large laundry.

The dining room leads out to the small rear patio where you can sit and look over the hills of Toodyay.
