Set on 5 gently sloping, grassy acres that run down to a massive, deep dam alive with bird life and other animals. The property features an orchard, colourful gardens, artist's studio, and a cozy 2 bedroom home with wood fire and masses of open living space. Ideal as a weekend retreat, or for FIFO folks or a small family but a third bedroom could be easily added under the current roof.

The home is western red cedar clad and features, insulated ceiling/roof, reverse cycle air-conditioning, gas hot water. Satellite TV and NBN are connected. The house has an all-around veranda providing shade and protection and a pleasant north easterly aspect with plenty of roof space for a future solar panel installation. A well established and maintained lawn along the front of the house gives way to a garden planted out thoughtfully with natives and water-wise shrubs.

The grounds are spacious. There is plenty of room for car parking for family and friends.

This perfect country get-away has a fox proof chicken coup, garden shed, fenced-off orchard with mandarins, oranges, lemons and lime trees. An outdoor studio has been established which is fully lined and

The catchment dam at the bottom of the property is deep and clear and would make an excellent home for yabbies. It could also be a useful source of water for irrigating the orchard, gardens or for fire mitigation but for the time being it is a beautiful, picturesque asset and a glorious place to while away some time.
