Toodyay

This is a quality 3 bedroom home set in a...

Available after Easter

This very comfortable hardiplank home is tucked away at the top of this block in a very private location with views across the Toodyay hills, located approx 12kms from town.

The house features laminate timber floors to all living areas, a modern well appointed kitchen that includes a dish washer and built in corner pantry.

There is a small dining room off the kitchen and a formal lounge room then an extra family room section where the slow combustion fire place is located.

3 good sized bedrooms all with built in robes and ceiling fans. The modern bathroom is very neat and does have a spa bath (but the pump is not connected).

Plus a large outdoor entertaining area and small lawn area to the rear of the house.

Ducted evaporative air conditioning services the whole house.

Solar hot water system.

A carport with room for 2 cars and verandahs all around the house.

Plus there is a large double garage / shed with a concrete floor, power connected and it's own rain water tank to feed water to the shed.

One small section of the shed is locked up and not included as part of the lease.

The house is fed by a 20,000 gallon rain water tank and there is also a bore on the property (with a puffer pump) for a back up water supply if you need it.

This home is situated on 18.5 acres which is fenced into 4 paddocks.

The house is for lease but the paddocks (some or all) may be included by negotiation with the owner, the paddocks do require work to make the fencing secure and if you wished to include the paddock space with the lease you will be required to repair and maintain the fences at your own expense.
